A Closer Look

This section features more in-depth analysis on selected events from each card of racing at Northville Downs, with something for the novice player and seasoned handicapper alike.

Race 2

1 - WESTERN DRIVE gets absolute post relief and might be in a position to strike today with a first chance from easier circumstances. We believe a potential for a mid-price strike presents. The early fire from a start two and four miles prior indicates ability and while the price will not be the gigantic offer of last week, it's a horse to not only watch, but highly consider from a greatly improved opportunity. 6 - NOHA closed up last week with strength against slightly softer and has shown improvement in recent. Interesting tab, speed beneficiary to be sure. Useful on any ticket. 4 - DANTE SEELSTER has some versatility, and might have bid too vigorously last week, yet many recent miles indicate overall strengths that fit right in. Cozier trip aids. This is a sensible spot to share.

Race 6

7 - HOW TWEET IT IS won smartly from the second tier last week and while the post is a challenge today, the form reversal and appealing ability to close gets our attention. The prime player if excessive speed arises. Our slim call. 1 - ZEKE THE FREAK nudges over to a slightly differing class of NW company and receives the prime draw. Always close by, don't ignore. 5 - YANKEE TIME has steadily improved with the recent weeks and plays again at a similar class. Weigh the tote offer.

Race 8

1 - MOONSHINE MICKEY receives sizeable post relief and looked terrific in a recent pair. Moody stays along, level speed plays in just fine. Narrow nod, mind value. 8 - BUNKERHILL JILL stays in the class and has steadily improved in late fractions. Might need speed to pursue, yet signs point positive overall. Potential price drifter. 9 - DREAMINMYLIFEAWAY operates from the second tier tonight and returns to us after a brief swing to Ohio. A factor in most local miles of late, capable of enough stalking pressure within those events to be of notice. A useful addition and bears a win chance!

Race 10

5 - CUZ I'M HAPPY makes a fine case off a strong victory in the last, a class drop that refreshed. Local successes this year at higher levels points to class strengths worth consideration. One of our stronger calls on the night, a highly attractive spot. 4 - BILBO BOBBINS gives every appearance of being connected to a more suitable level, draw good for the presser-style action; demonstrable passing skills also noted. Good connections and all-around, the right kind of horse for multiple positions on the exotics you play. 1 - YOUNDA SHARK has been climbing our ladder of late, receives the pole position draw, and has tactical choices in abundance.

Race 11

2 - ROCK ME ALWAYS gets post relief and returns from Ohio to more familiar circumstances. Numerous excellent miles at higher value locally, the spot more than fits and plays. May very well fire from the gate. 1 - SCARLET CAT was racing strongly in October and receives a favourable post. Consider off the brief time away to factor and bear good win chances. 5 - THE LAST SHARK was much improved off the drop and takes on the level a second time tonight. Appealing, steady contributor to the pace equation.
